Intro E / A / E pause

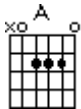

Gonna write a sixty second song, Really shouldn't take too long

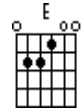

On a postcard I will pen it, This will only take a minute

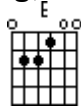

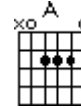

With my time just ticking away, I really wish that you would stay

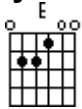

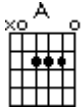

Feel like a stupid jerk, I know we can make this work

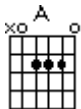

Just a sixty second song, Promise it won't take too long

True love baby I am in it, Love you every single minute

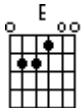

I know I need to make this fast, I know that our love can last

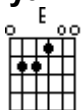

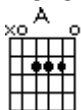

You are the reason that I breathe, Would it help if I was on my knees?

"Lead Break!!!"

Here's my sixty second song, Told ya wouldn't take too long

Roll your eyes and heave a sigh, I'm a mess but baby I'm your guy
