

Your Tattos Richard "Daddy" Love 9/19/2011

My girl took me on a shopping trip, To every clothing store in town
Man that girl was born to shop, me I get so worn down
She tries on every dress in the place, Spins around and asks me what I think
I think that one looks really good and I could really use a drink
Yes I like the blue dress baby, Looks great with those new shoes
But I can't wait to see you at home wearing nothing but your tattos
Nothing but your tattos, wearing nothing but your tattos
I can't wait to see you at home wearing nothing but your tattos

I take you out to a fancy place, For some dinner and a bottle of wine
I'm so proud to have you on my arm, Babe you look so damn fine
You are just so sexy babe, From your hair down to your shoes
But I can't wait to see you at home wearing nothing but your tattos
Nothing but your tattos, wearing nothing but your tattos
I can't wait to get you alone wearing nothing but your tattos

Driving home from a hard day's work, Every muscle in my back is sore
Fight my way through traffic, Finally make it to my door
My girl knows just what to do to cure my working blues
She opens the door, Glass of wine in her hand
Wearing nothing but those tattos
Nothing but your tattos, wearing nothing but your tattos
I'm so glad to see you at home wearing nothing but your tattos
Nothing but your tattos, wearing nothing but your tattos
I'm so glad to to get you alone wearing nothing but your tattos
